

Patient Rights and Responsibilities

To be informed of these rights at the time of admission, as evidenced by the patient's written acknowledgement, or by documentation by staff in the medical record, that the patient was offered a written copy of these rights and given a written or verbal explanation of these rights, in terms the patient could understand. The facility shall have a means to notify patients of any rules and regulations it has adopted governing patient conduct in the facility. The patient has the right to participate in planning his or her care and treatment.

1. The patient has the right to be informed of services available at Eltra Surgery Center, and to be given the name and professional status of his attending practitioner and of all other practitioners participating in his care. The patient is entitled to be given information explanation of his/her bill, and facility fees and charges, including payment, fee, deposit and refund policy, and any charges for services not covered by sources of third-party payment or not covered by the facility's basic rate.
2. The patient has the right to be treated with courtesy, consideration, respect and recognition of the patient's dignity, individuality and right to privacy, including but not limited to auditory and visual privacy. The patient's privacy shall also be respected when Eltra personnel are discussing the patient.
3. The patient has the right to have records pertaining to his/her medical care treated as confidential. Information in the patient's medical record shall not be released to anyone outside Eltra Surgery Center without the patient's approval, unless another health care facility to which the patient was transferred requires the information, or unless the release of the information is required and permitted by law, a third-party payment contract, or a peer review, or unless the information is needed by the Department of Health for statutorily authorized purposes. Eltra staff may release data about the patient for studies containing aggregated statistics when the patient's identity is masked.
4. Patients have the right to know what rules and regulations at Eltra apply to their conduct as a patient.
5. Patients have the right to expect emergency procedures to begin without unnecessary delay.
6. The patient has the right to good quality care and high professional standards that are continually maintained and reviewed, and to expect and receive appropriate assessment, management and treatment of pain as an integral component of that person's care in accordance with N.J.A.C. 8:43E-6, including education for the patient and the patient's significant others regarding pain and symptom management.
7. The patient has the right to full information in layman's terms, concerning his/her diagnosis, treatment, and prognosis, including information about alternative treatments and possible complications. Except for emergencies, the practitioners shall obtain the necessary informed consent prior to the start of the procedure. When it is not medically advisable to give such information to the patient, the information shall be given on his behalf to a responsible person.
8. A patient, or if the patient is unable to give informed consent, a responsible person, has the right to be advised when practitioner is considering the patient as part of a medical care research program or donor program. The patient or responsible person shall give informed consent prior to actual participation in the program. A patient, or responsible person, may refuse to continue in a program to which he has previously given informed consent. The patient has the right to refuse drugs or participate in investigation of drugs, devices or procedures, and a practitioner shall inform the patient of the medical consequences of refusal of drugs or procedures.
9. A patient has the right to medical and nursing services, without discrimination or reprisal based upon age, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, handicap, disability, or source of payment.
10. The patient has the right to change providers if other qualified providers are available.
11. The patient has a right to voice grievances or recommend changes in policies and services to Eltra personnel, the governing authority, and/or outside representatives of the patient's choice, either individually or as a group, and free from restraint, interference, coercion, discrimination or reprisal.
12. A patient who does not speak English shall have access, where possible, to an interpreter.

Patient Rights and Responsibilities

13. Eltra staff shall provide the patient, or patient designee, upon request, access to the information contained in his medical records, unless access is specifically restricted by the attending practitioner for medical reasons.
14. The patient has the right to expect good management techniques to be implemented within this surgery center. These techniques shall make effective use of the time of the patient and avoid the personal discomfort of the patient.
15. If an emergency occurs and the patient is transferred to another facility, the responsible person shall be notified. The hospital to which the patient is to be transferred shall be notified of the patient's transfer.
16. The patient has the right to expect that Eltra Surgery Center will provide information for continuing health care requirements following discharge and the means for meeting them.
17. The patient has the right to obtain information as to any relationship of Eltra Surgery Center to other health care and educational institutions insofar as his/her care is concerned. The patient has the right to obtain information as to the existence of any professional or ownership relationships among individuals, by name, who are treating him/her.
18. The patient has the right to make recommendations or lodge a complaint about any aspect of care. The patient may make a complaint to the Center's Administrator, Newton White, Esq at (973) 425-1600, or to the Medical Director, Janet Neigel, MD at (973) 410-1100. The patient may also file a complaint with the NJ Department of Health at their Complaints Hotline, (800) 792-9770, or on line at www.doh.state.nj.us/fc; or with the Office of the Medicare Beneficiary Ombudsman, www.medicare.gov/claims-and-appeals/medicare-rights/get-help/ombudsman.html or No Surprise Helpdesk at 1-800-985-3059; or with the Accreditation Association for Ambulatory Health Care (AAAHC) at (847) 853-6060.
